The school record kept by an old time teacher of "No. 6" in a New England village contains at least one item which moved a chance reader to smiles It is this:

"Special honor badges were given to Flora and Minetta Lovett for the best attendance. During the entire school year they were not once absent to attend any picnic, reunion, excursion or merrymaking, the only exception be ing the afternoon of May 10, when their twin brothers were ill from the effect of something they had eaten and not expected to live, although they soon recovered.
